Foreword

"Suscipe, sancte Pater . . . hanc immaculatam hostiam . . ."

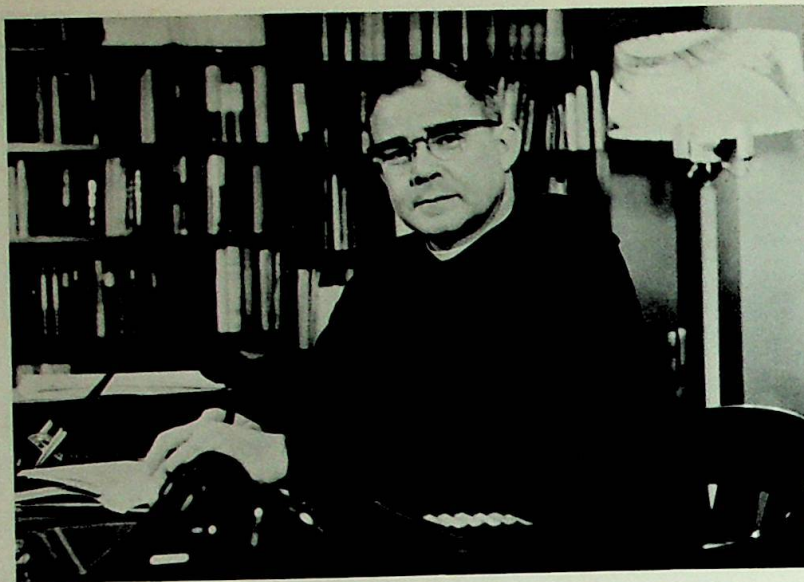

And to this end have we seminarians come to St. Meinrad — that the Almighty Father might accept us with the Spotless Victim — that by prayer, study, and recreation, we might grow "in wisdom and age and grace before God and man," and thus prepare ourselves for the work of the holy priesthood.

We, the Class of 1962, recognize and appreciate that our preparation for the priesthood has been made possible by the work of the Benedictine monks of St. Meinrad Archabbey in developing and maintaining the seminary that we have been privileged to attend.

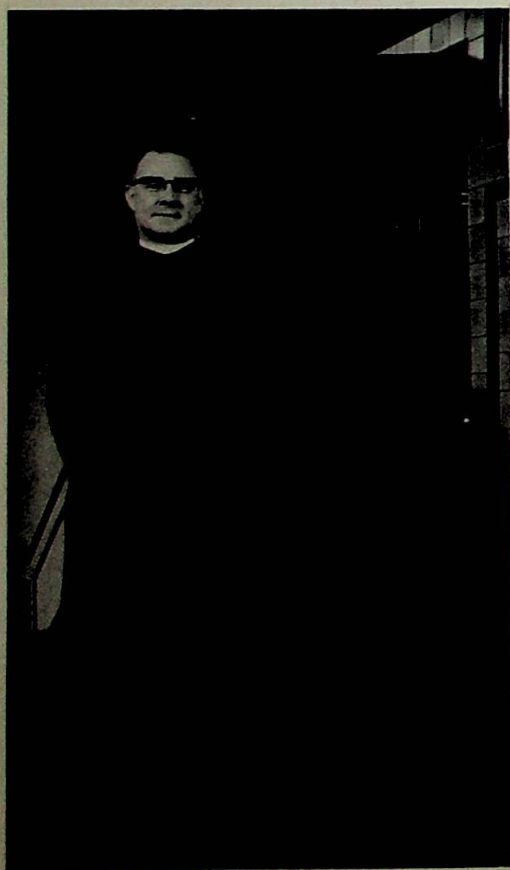

Therefore, we should like to express our gratitude to the monks who make St. Meinrad what it is; we should like to thank especially the high school administrative officials and faculty members for their help, advice, and encouragement.

We shall remember all of the St. Meinrad monks, God willing, when we stand at the altar and pray: "Suscipe, sancte Pater . . ."

Dedication

After having served for fourteen years as rector of St. Meinrad Seminary, Very Reverend Herman Romoser, O.S.B., became the first rector of the newly established high school department during the 1961-62 school year.

In addition to his many duties as rector, Father Herman has taught world history and Religion IV during the past year. His interest in these subjects, his patience in the classroom, and the well-prepared classes he conducts despite his heavy responsibilities as rector constitute his outstanding qualities as a teacher.

Yet it would be incorrect to say that his energies are limited to these activities alone; for whenever a problem arises, whether personal or pertaining to the whole student body, no one's advice is more sought after than Father Rector's.

Therefore, in appreciation for his selfless efforts in our behalf, we dedicate Suscipe, the first high school yearbook, to our rector, Father Herman.

THE MOST REVEREND PAUL C. SCHULTE, D.D.
Archbishop of Indianapolis

The motto on the coat of arms of His Excellency, Paul C. Schulte, D.D., archbishop of Indianapolis, sets forth in a simple way his aspiration as a man of God and a successor to the apostles: "Ad nutum reginae"—"At the Queen's command."

This is precisely what Archbishop Schulte has striven to do since his ordination in 1915—to be at the command of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of Heaven, as a humble instrument in spreading the kingdom of her Divine Son, Jesus Christ.

Since his installation as head of the Indianapolis Archdiocese in 1946, His Excellency has established an impressive record as an administrator, priest, and teacher. By his work, prayers, and good example, he has molded his See into one of the finest in the Midwest.

The Archbishop's visits to St. Meinrad Seminary to bestow the priestly powers and to share his divine mission have truly been an inspiration for those seeking to follow the path to the priesthood.

By his words and deeds, Archbishop Schulte, at the Queen's command, has shown us how to walk in the footsteps of the Eternal High Priest.

"... Quam ego . . . offero . . . pro omnibus circumstantibus." These words from the Offertory of the Mass very aptly apply to our Father Archabbot Bonaventure, our spiritual father and leader, who presents to God the fruit of our labors as we stand about him.

Father Archabbot, born in 1918, came to St. Meinrad as a freshman in 1931 and entered the monastery after his second year of college. Ordained June 5, 1943, the young monk received his M.S. from Catholic University in 1946, after which time he continued his post graduate work at the University of Pittsburgh for three summers.

Teaching mathematics from 1946 to 1953, Father Archabbot also served as assistant manager at the Abbey Press and assistant spiritual director of the major seminary until his election as abbot on June 3, 1955. The Most Reverend Paul C. Schulte, D.D., archbishop of Indianapolis, officially blessed the abbot-elect the following August 31.

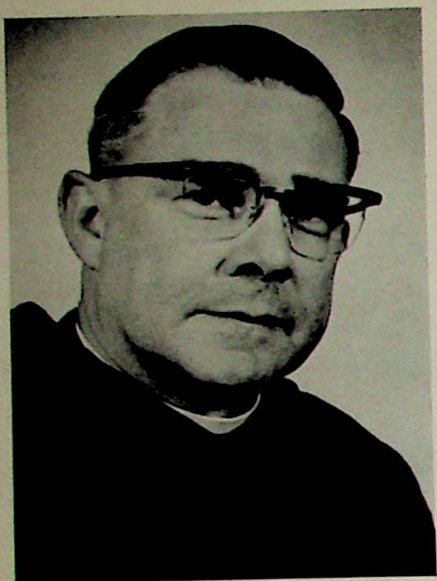

Under the direction of this outstanding Benedictine, the St. Meinrad Newsletter was started, the St. Jude Guest House completed, St. Charles Priory founded, and plans for a Peruvian foundation set forth.

Athletics

"Mens sana in corpore sano!"

A healthy mind in a healthy body—this has been the aim and chief goal of the High School's Athletic Director, Father Hugh Dewig, O.S.B.

The purpose of athletic activities, according to Father Hugh, is to develop the body by exercise but at the same time to relax and refresh the mind. Athletics build up the strength of the body that is needed to back up a healthy mind. In our athletic program, emphasis is placed on sportsmanship, competitive spirit, and team work, all so essential in every athletic activity and in the formation of character.

Since Father took charge of the High School Athletic Department in 1959, he has greatly contributed to the school's intramural sports program. During the 1961-62 season, the sports program has had its most successful year. The purpose of this program is to have everyone in the high school participating in athletics. This not only gives each seminarian the chance for exercise, recreation, and training, but it also creates better unity and cooperation among the students.

Patience, one of Father's outstanding virtues, is clearly shown by the way he takes time to instruct students not athletically inclined in the fundamentals of team sports while also attempting to awaken in them an interest in these sports. Being aware of the fact that physical fitness is essential to the student both as a seminarian now and as a priest in the future, Father Hugh has initiated a physical fitness program and has made a tremendous success of it.

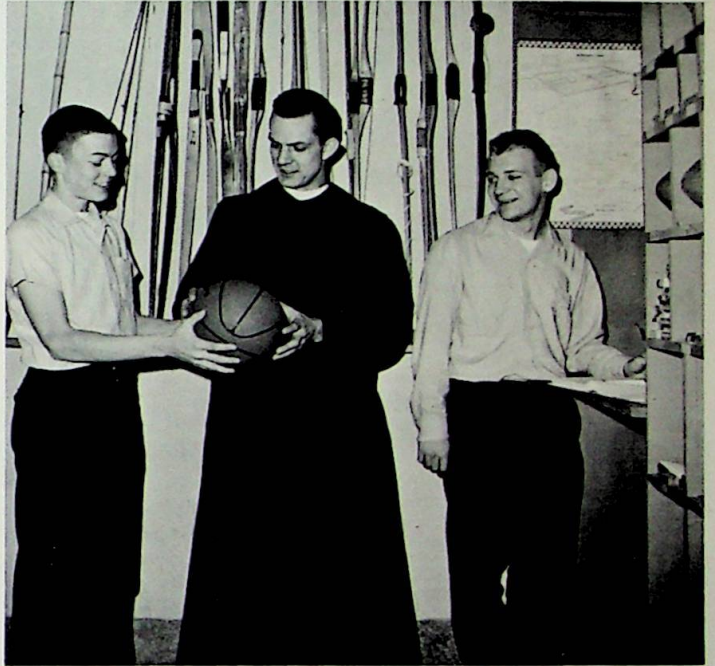

We cannot list here all the many things Father has done to better this high school because they and their effects on our lives are innumerable. Surely we, the members of St. Meinrad Seminary High School, who have benefited so much from his work should at all times be thankful for Father Hugh, a great teacher, a helpful friend, and a true Son of St. Meinrad.

MISSION UNIT OFFICERS—Norman Scarazzo, secretary; Father Kevin Ryan, O.S.B., moderator; John Mooney, president; Donn Raabe, vice-president; Raymond Buening, treasurer.

Raymond Buening, treasurer, reports on the financial status of the Mission Unit.

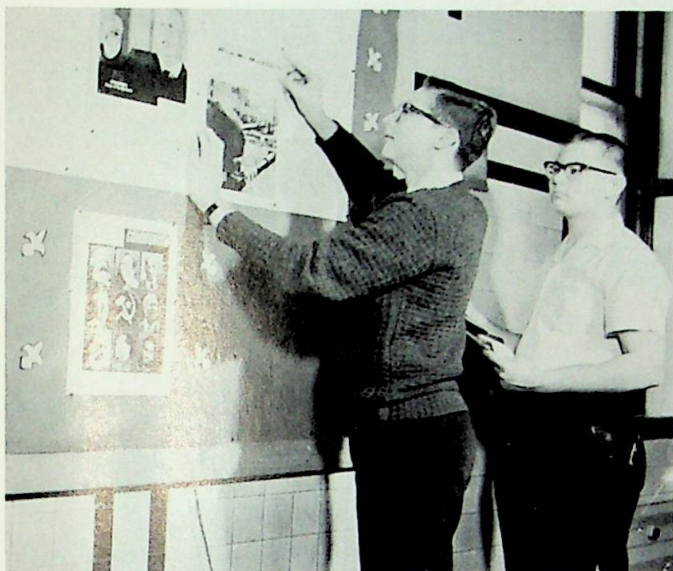

The Catholic Students' Mission Crusade organization at St. Meinrad this year saw a new water mark amid the rushing tide of changes. With the seminary divided into three units, the high school department set about organizing a completely new mission unit.

After having been duly christened, chartered, and constituted, the Christ the King Mission Unit, with Latin America as the 1961-62 theme, began a totally new mission program aimed at engendering real mission interest and participation among the students. This participation was realized in the presentation of a mission skit by each class, in the emphasis placed on study club participation, and in the keen interest of underclassmen in mission activities.

Thus, in its first year the Christ the King Mission Unit has undergone its expected baptism of fire; it has proved itself equal to the challenge of adjusting to this year's changes by the establishment of a new and successful form of mission activities here at St. Meinrad.

CIVIL DEFENSE OFFICERS—SEATED:

Ryan, O.S.B., John Kremer. STANDING:
John Renner, Thomas Bennett, James
Howard, Alfred Gschnell, Daniel Nalin.

In the past three years, through the efforts of Father Kevin, vice-rector of the high school, our Civil Defense group has grown from an idea into a reality. Father Kevin started the group in compliance with President Eisenhower's wish that each school be capable of handling any emergency which may threaten the lives of its students.

This year the Civil Defense group has been primarily engaged in organizing a responsible and complete unit. Assisted by Mr. Robert Patmore, CD education director of Spencer County, we divided the unit into six committees, each responsible for a certain area of administration. Mr. Patmore arranged for police training and Red Cross instruction so that the St. Meinrad unit might carry out its duties more effectively. To augment this training program, we instituted study groups and provided for the continuance of the group through the future years.

In all, Civil Defense provides excellent physical and mental training for its members. It teaches us not only to protect ourselves, but also to help to preserve the lives of others.

Members of the CD unit greet the Honorable Matthew E. Welsh, governor of Indiana, on his visit to St. Meinrad February 28.
