Dedication

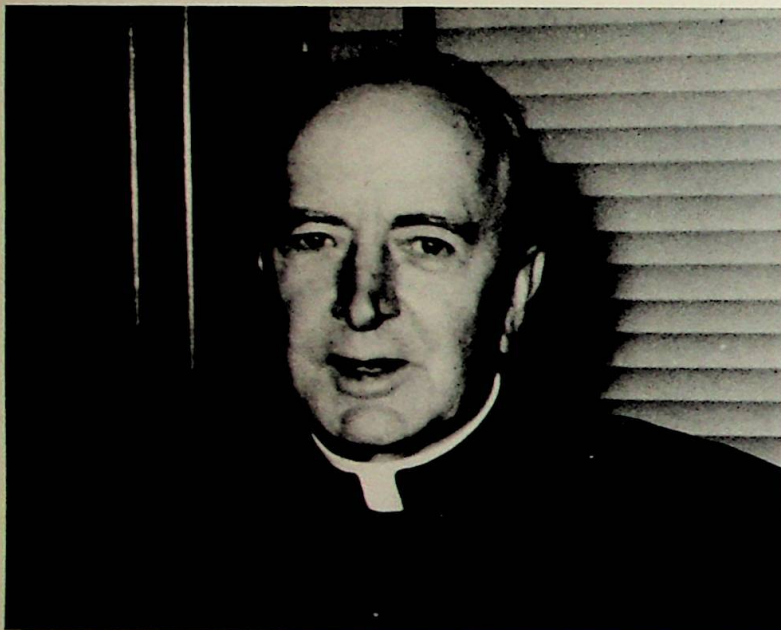

This service alone would be sufficient cause for dedication of a hundred yearbooks to him. However, Father Herbert does not limit himself to this single realm of service. Father is also an English professor par excellence for the junior English course. It is guaranteed that when you walk out of Father Herbert's last English lecture you will, even if you have not mastered any one of the many other things, be able to handle English grammar to the best of your ability.

Because of your self-sacrificing devotion, Father Herbert, we are dedicating to you the 1967 SUSCIPE as a small token of our appreciation for all the things you have done for us.

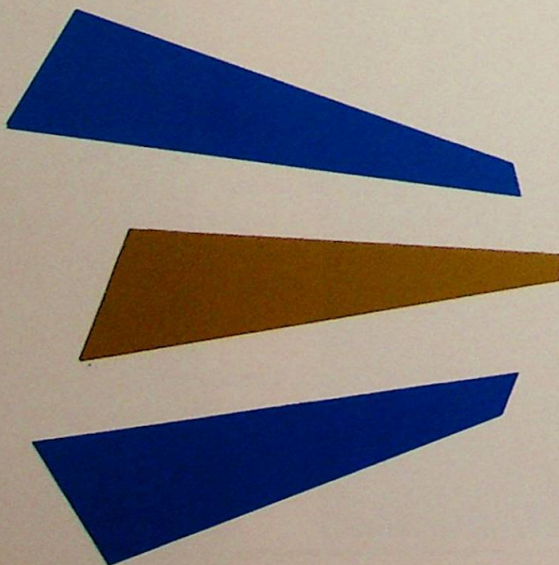

ARCHBISHOP

Archbishop Paul C. Schulte was born in Fredericktown, Missouri, on March 18, 1890. After attending Kenrick Seminary in St. Louis, Missouri, he was ordained on June 11, 1915. After serving as Bishop of Leavenworth, Kansas from 1937 to 1946, he was appointed Archbishop of Indianapolis on July 20, 1946.

In the 21 years that he has been Archbishop, His Excellency has been a model to those seeking the goal of the Priesthood. In acknowledgement for all he has done for us, we humbly ask God's blessing on Archbishop Schulte.

The Blessing of Archabbot Gabriel by Archbishop Schulte.

ARCHABBOT

Father Archabbot Gabriel Verkamp, a native of Ferdinand, Indiana, attended Huntingburg High School before coming to St. Meinrad Minor Seminary. In 1922, he became a Benedictine novice, pronounced his first vows in 1923, and professed his solemn vows in 1926.

During his theological studies at the Pontifical International College at Sant' Anselmo, he was ordained at Monte Cassino, Italy, on July 2, 1929.

For three years before his election as Abbot, he served as Prior of St. Meinrad Archabbey. Before he was Prior, Archabbot Gabriel taught philosophy and sacred theology at St. Meinrad.

Archabbot Gabriel has been pastor at New Boston, Indiana, St. Meinrad, Indiana, and St. Benedict's Parish in Evansville, Indiana.

May God bless Archabbot Gabriel and help him lead the monastery through these troubled times.

Foreword

Education makes the common man less common; it gives the less common man distinction. For a century Saint Meinrad High School has been providing this education so necessary to the student, to the Church, and to the world.

Cardinal Newman once said, "Why do we educate except to prepare for the world?" The High School, while directing the student towards God, has not neglected his social education.

One of man's basic needs is the ability to get along with his fellows, not a trait to be easily acquired under any circumstances. But this year, because of the smallness of the student body, juniors and seniors had to accept the idea of living together almost without distinction as to class. That they WOULD was perhaps the school's biggest problem in September. That they DID can best be illustrated by the 1967 SUSCIPE.

Father Kevin was born in Evansville, Indiana, on April 9, 1916. He came to St. Meinrad in 1930 and commenced his studies for the Priesthood. In 1937 he entered the monastic life and was solemnly professed into the Order in 1940. Father Kevin was ordained to the Holy Priesthood on May 21, 1942.

Shortly after receiving the sacrament of Holy Orders, Father Kevin was appointed Physics teacher of the Minor Seminary. In 1950, he was appointed to the position of assistant instructor of the Brothers.

Since 1958, he has been affiliated with the High School. He has enlightened students with his Physics and Algebra classes. As Vice-Rector and Disciplinarian he encouraged good behavior, and made sure that we followed his encouragements.

Father Kevin was appointed Rector in 1965. Since the High School is closing after this year, the number of students has been diminishing. Because of this, he is often reminding us to do things as a school, not as small groups. He emphasizes that we must get along with everyone. We should thank him for his efforts.

This year, Father Kevin is celebrating his twenty-fifth anniversary to the Holy Priesthood. We, the students of the High School, wish to congratulate him and ask God's blessing to descend upon him and make the next twenty-five years as rewarding as the past twenty-five.

Father Damian

In Grateful Appreciation

Father Meinrad, Assistant-Disciplinarian and Manager of the Scholar Shop, is always ready to serve the students in their spiritual and material needs. If a student needs advice, he knows he can count on Father Meinrad; if a student needs something that the Scholar Shop does not have on hand, Father will order it immediately.

In addition to these other jobs, Father Meinrad also serves on the High School faculty, teaching the World History and American History classes.

We wish to express our appreciation to Father Meinrad for all his services to the High School. May God bless him.

Father Damian, Disciplinarian and Vice-Rector, is a person who is always willing to discuss any problems with the students and give advice when needed. He is always there to lend a helping hand.

Along with his position as disciplinarian, Father Damian is an active member of the faculty. Although he is at present teaching only the ecology class, he has conducted the biology class for High School sophomores in the past.

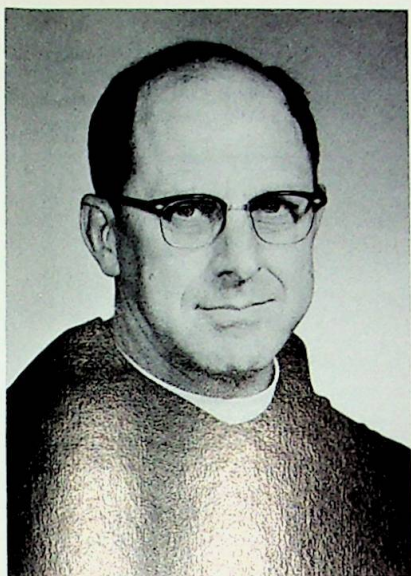

We, the students he has done so much for, wish to express our thanks for this loving labor. May God bless him with many more fruitful years in the priesthood.

Although this is the last year of the High School Mission Unit, we hope it will not be the end in the minds of the students. The Mission Unit hopes to impress on the students that we must always pray and help the missions in any way we can. By the missions, we mean not only the people in far-off lands, but our neighbors -- friend and enemy.

Perfect this and our mission is complete.

Yes, November means Thanksgiving. But to us here at St. Meinrad, it meant much more. There was the lighter side: the brisk November winds brought snow. There was the serious side: with the snow came the news that Fr. Barnabas Harrington would be with us no longer. But there was yet another side. For just as every new month does, November brought with it a renewed interest in life -- and in each other.

ATHLETICS

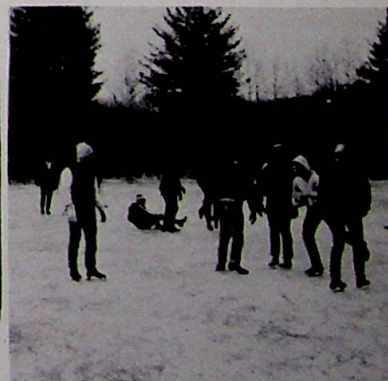

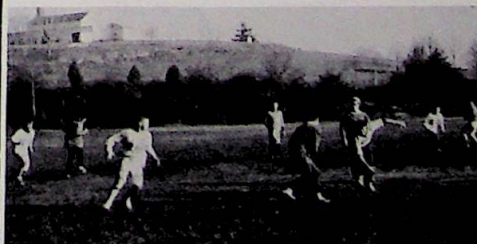

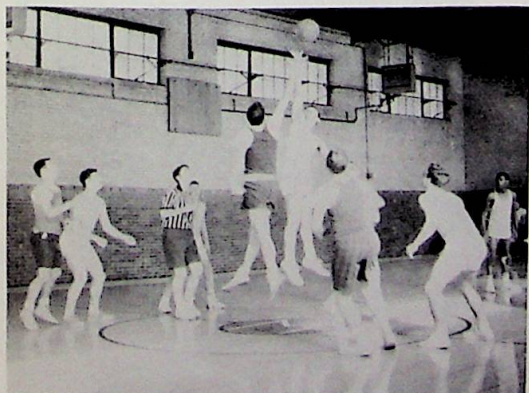

Sports in the Seminary

"Mens sana in sano corpore." -- A sound mind in a sound body. This familiar proverb has real meaning for the seminarian as he prepares himself for the priesthood. He realizes that while his spiritual soul is far above his material body, the development of his body should by no means be neglected. By keeping the body healthy and relaxed, study becomes easier and more profitable.

Athletics not only relaxes the mind but helps form correct mental attitudes. It engenders self-discipline, for in every game the regulations of fair play and courtesy must be observed. Genuine sportsmanship is the important goal. In addition, playing arouses quickness of thought and action, enthusiasm, and self-confidence, the valuable elements of success in the future.

Father Rector entrusted the direction of the athletic program to the student body this year. Under the supervision of the Athletic Council, leagues were formed and tournaments scheduled, providing ample opportunity for everyone to participate and enjoy himself.

It has been the objective of this year's athletic department to bolster good family spirit. If the value and success of a community can be determined by the spirit which prevails among its members then it can easily be said that the athletic department has achieved its goal.

the beginning....
(Would you believe Charlie Eder, age 4?)

No Scotch improves the flavour of water like Teacher's.

There's no such place.

Ask any bartender.

Powerful Physique in less than two minutes a day.

The dogmeat was hard to swallow.

People in this country don't believe everything they read.

We've been making Canadian whiskey for years.

Fasten your seat belt, Daddy.

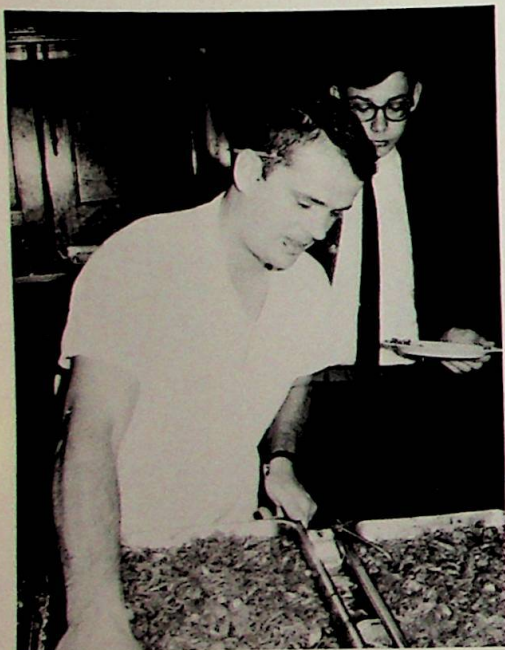

MGB/GT will build your ego,
develop your self-control,
sharpen your wits, and expand your confidence.

Fourscore....

The old man and the sea.

The franc is local currency in Tahiti.

Don't let your ego shorten your tee shots.
